American Refugees On Coast

Telephone Company Head, Reporters and Others
Stay in Madrid

Madrid, Spain, Friday, Nov. 27.
—Four American refugees from Madrid were aboard the cruiser Raleigh this morning awaiting the arrival of 21 others and were delayed by motor trouble.

Commander A. G. Cook, in charge of the evacuation, said he anticipated the Raleigh could anchor by noon. Eric C.
Wenden, third secretary in charge of the U. S. embassy in Madrid, telephoned from a village between Valencia and the capital that another automobile had been secured so that the remaining refugees could continue their journey.

Pathetic Sight

Refugees here said it was a pathetic sight when the caravan left Madrid Thursday morning. Several Madrid women were forced to leave their Spanish husbands behind.

Colonel Stephen Fuqua, military attache of the Madrid embassy, and the other refugees had a "miserable journey" from Madrid. They did not know until arriving here that the second bus had broken down.

Wendell Fuqua observed with result, "I'm here and shall be stay-

Big Push Is Expected In North China

Part With Germany Taken to Have Given Courage to the Japanese

Peiping, Friday, Nov. 27.—(U.P.)
—The Japanese and Manchurian armies attempting to invade Suiyuan province were reinforced today by 2,000 soldiers from the Japanese-controlled State of Manchukuo and plan an immediate attack on the strategic city of Peiping-Tianjin. Chinese military dispatches reported.

Most of the new soldiers are Japanese military reservists, the dispatches said.

The Manchukuo-Mongolian armies now are concentrating at Shanghai across the Charhar border.
Preparatory to a general attack on Suiyuan. First objective of the army will be to recapture Pailiang taken this week by the Chinese after which the original plan for an invasion of Suiyuan is to be undertaken.

The Manchukuo-Mongolian armies were described as greatly heartened by news of publication of the German-Japanese anti-communist agreement which they believed would result in weakening Chinese resistance, since China cannot now hope for assistance from Soviet Russia.

How To Get Sportsmen To This Section

Prominent Winston-Salem Man Hands Out Some Good Suggestions

Some sound advice for the chamber of commerce secretaries of this section, as well as some for the guides, innkeepers and others who cater to parties of sportsmen, is contained in the following letter from Harry F. Aitchison, of Winston-Salem, business manager of the Southern Tobacco Journal, secretary of the Camel City Civilian club, and a North Carolina booster. Read:

Winston-Salem, N. C., Nov. 25, 1936.
Editor The Daily Independent,
Elizabeth City, N. C.
Dear Sir:

The writer was greatly interested in your recent editorial about the necessity of extolling the virtues of your section of the coast country as fishing grounds for northern sportsmen—but how about the sportsmen of your own state from up-country who enjoy deep-sea fishing just as much as the rich northerners?

Your suggestion of inviting certain groups for guest trips of two to three days is fine. If I were secretary of a chamber of commerce in one of these coast towns anxious to build up a fishing c clientele, I'd arrange somehow to invite a party of a half dozen or so devotees of the sport (sure, I'll volunteer for one) from each of the larger cities of the state to be the guests of the community for two or three days in the spring.
Show 'em what you've got—what sport is available and what accommodations—and when they go back they'll be boosters that will attract scores of others and will make return trips themselves. I

PEACEFUL SEARCH FOR LOST HUNTERS

San Perita, Tex., Nov. 26.—(U.P.) Comparative quiet returned to the tense San Perita section today as possession resumed the search for two men who disappeared last week in the vicinity of the vast King ranch.

Townspeople and farmers who threatened yesterday to invade the ranch to seek Luther Blanton, 57, and his son, John, 24, joined officers in a peaceful, systematic search for the men.

Small posses, led by ranchers and local officers, entered the 1,000,000-acre ranch with permission of the owners.

An airplane joined in the hunt and flew over the ranch, but failed to find any trace of the missing men. Their friends believe them victims of foul play.

It was reported that rangers held a man for questioning in connection with the disappearance of the hunters.

The Blantons disappeared a week ago yesterday, after leaving home for a short hunting trip on a lagoon near San Perita.

Quiet In Nation's Capital

And for the First Time In Its History Nation Celebrated Thanksgiving With President Abroad.

Washington, Nov. 26.—(U.P.)—
For the first time in its history the nation celebrated Thanksgiving today with its chief executive abroad.

President Roosevelt was rolling down to Rio de Janeiro aboard the speedy cruiser Indianapolis, on route to the Pan-American peace conference at Buenos Aires.
He will land at Rio tomorrow for an official visit before continuing.

In past years the President and his family ate their turkey at Warm Springs, Ga., where Mr.
Roosevelt helped found a spa for infantile paralysis sufferers. This year the rest of the family is at the ancestral estate, Krum Elbow, at Hyde Park, N. Y. Nearby at Fishkill lives a member of the President's official family—Secretary of the Treasury Henry Mor-genthau, Jr., who went home for Thanksgiving this year.

Secretary of State Cordell Hull was even farther from his homeland than the President. He had already reached Buenos Aires with the official delegation to the peace conference.

Secretary of the Interior Harold I. Ickes spent two hours at his desk before going home to a turkey dinner. Attorney General Homer S. Cummings, who ordered his G-men to make sure the "turkey trust" didn't charge too high prices this year, also was in the capital, and so was Secretary of Commerce Daniel C. Roper. Relief Administrator Harry L. Hop-

Hearst Hires A Son-in-law Of Roosevelt

John Boettiger Goes to Seattle to Publish Post Intelligencer

New York, Nov. 26.—(U.P.)—Appointment of John Boettiger, son-in-law of President Franklin D.
Roosevelt, as publisher of the Seattle Post-Intelligencer, was announced tonight by William Randolph Hearst.

The announcement followed settlement last night "of the strike which had forced the Post-Intelligencer to cease publication for a period of more than three months," a Hearst statement said.
Boettiger, former New York and Chicago newspaperman, will leave New York shortly with his wife, the former Anna Roosevelt Dall, for Seattle.

"Boettiger will have absolute freedom in directing the editorial and business policies of the Post-Intelligencer," Hearst said. "His only direction is to make it the best newspaper in Seattle."

Boettiger, 36, started with the Chicago city news bureau in 1931, served on the Chicago Evening American and the Chicago Tribune, for which he covered the Roosevelt campaign of 1932, and became assistant chief of the Tribune's Washington bureau following Mr. Roosevelt's inauguration.

He resigned from the Tribune in 1934 and joined the staff of Will Hays, motion picture commissioner, after which he married the President's daughter who had divorced Curtiss Dall, New York broker.

Grandson of Late John Wanamaker Fatally Wounded

Doylestown, Pa., Nov. 26.—(U.P.) Barclay H. Warburton, Jr., 38, a grandson of the late John Wanamaker, was wounded fatally today when his shotgun accidentally discharged while hunting on his farm at Edison, near here.

Warburton, who recently turned to gentleman farming, was the son of Mayor Barclay H. Warburton, former Mayor of Palm Beach, Fla.

England Hastens to Meet Threat With Threat

WITH new tenseness developing in Europe, London reports that the British Government is speeding the construction of a big air fleet. Here is one of the huge new bombers recently christened at the airplane works in Radlett. The craft is a high-wing monoplane with slotted wings and variable pitch propellers. Fifty new airports are planned.

Mike Woodard Is Winner Of $140 Jackpot

Local Boy Got Inside the Theater In Time to Claim Prize

A lucky young man is Wm. A.
"Mike" Woodard, of the circulation department of a local afternoon newspaper, whose name last night was called out for the $140 jackpot at a local theater.

Mike, fortunately, was standing on the outside of the theater when his name was called, and the news was relayed out to him in a few seconds. Already clutching the ticket which he had bought in case his name should be called, he elbowed his way through the throngs that crowded the theater entrance and got inside in time to claim the prize.

He was the first winner of the jackpot since Miss Maxine Daniels won $120 in early October.

Mike, whose father was killed in an automobile accident several years ago and whose mother is a hosiery worker, was a very happy boy when he left the theater with his prize last night. He lives at 903 First street.

Rockefeller to Get His Shrine Despite Guard

The French Government
Politely Notifies Villagers
That It's All Settled

Paris, Nov. 26.—(U.P.)—The government informed the village of Chauvirey Le Chatel today that when the time comes to tear down the chapel of St. Hubert and send it to John D. Rockefeller, Jr., nothing will stand in the way—not even peasants armed with clubs.

The enraged peasants of the provincial town, learning it was proposed to ship the 300-year-old shrine to the United States, stone by stone, in thanks for Rockefeller's $3,080,000 gifts to France, mounted a day and night guard around the chapel yesterday.

If the chapel, a gem of Gothic art, is lost, the village loses its only claim to historic fame, they protested.

But the ministry of beaux art, in a pleasantly phrased answer to the town, said the chapel soon will have no more historic claim than a corner newspaper kiosk—legally speaking.

St. Hubert, a shrine to the saint of huntersmen, is classed as a historic monument and as such cannot be touched.

So, in order to tear it down and ship it to the United States, the ministry of beaux art will introduce a bill in parliament declaring there is no longer anything historic about the tiny structure.

FRANKLIN, JR., IS ILL
Boston, Nov. 26.—(U.P.)—Suffering from an attack of acute sinus, Franklin D. Roosevelt, Jr., son of the President, was confined to a hospital Thanksgiving Day.

Labor To Demand Revision Of Social Security Act In '37

Wants Act to Include 3,000,000 Farm
Workers

$50 For the Aged

Reduction of Payments by Workers Is Included In Demands to Be Made

Tampa, Fla., Nov. 26.—(U.P.)— Changes in the Social Security law to raise the old age pension minimum, embrace 3,000,000 agricultural workers and safeguard the potential $46,000,000 old age benefit fund from the pranks of "whimsical" legislators will be demanded of the 75th Congress.
President William Green of the American Federation of Labor said tonight.

Green outlined organized labor's program toward revising the security act at a press conference as he made plans to bring the 56th annual federation convention to a close tomorrow evening. The executive council, which suspended John L. Lewis and his C. I. O., aided, will meet Saturday and Sunday, after which a new invitation to a peace conference will be extended to the "rebel" leaders.

Green visited Matthew Well, vice president of the federation who was taken to a hospital suffering from acute indigestion, and said the stricken official was much improved today and would rest for the next few days.

Afterward he met newspaper correspondents and outlined labor's Social Security program as follows:
1. Extension on unemployment

The Simpson Romance May Be Two-Way

Auburn-Haired American Visitor May Be Next
Mrs. Simpson

Southampton, England, Nov. 26, (U.P.)—Mrs. Jacques Raffray arrived from New York today aboard the S. S. Hamburg and was met by a man believed to be Ernest Simpson.

Reports that Mrs. Raffray, auburn-haired and of fair complexion, would marry the Canadian-born English broker as soon as his divorce from Mrs. Wallie Simpson becomes final have been denied by her New York attorney.

Mrs. Raffray, although living apart from her husband, is not, divorced, the attorney said.

The man, who took Mrs. Raffray's arm as she descended the gangplank, refused to reveal his name. He hurried her to a refreshment room and then to the customs platform. Police assisted him in thwarting photographers.

After customs formalities the couple entrained for London.

London, Nov. 26.—(U.P.)—Scotland Yard said tonight it had heard nothing about threatening letters reported to have been received by Mrs. Ernest (Wally) Simpson.

"We certainly would know about it if there was any foundation for the report," an official told the United Press.

The usual guard of two uniformed policemen patrolled Cumberland Terrace throughout the

Campaign Moves Off Slowly

Not Enough Real Workers To Take All of the Prize Awards

The campaign which has just officially started gives you the opportunity to join now, earn extra Christmas money and be among the few active workers.

No one can possibly lose as you receive an advance pay check of 20 per cent on all subscription money turned in during the week, and an opportunity of earning one of the major awards.

Some of the prospective candidates who have been in so far have said, "Oh, I will try but I can't win one of those fine automobiles!" But the man or woman, boy or girl who first resolves that he or she is going to win and has the confidence to give his or her best to the campaign is very likely to be presented one of the very biggest awards.

This is entry week in The Daily Independent's Weekly Payroll subscription campaign. Little or nothing has been done up to the present time in this generous award offering.

A check-up shows that we have less active candidates in our subscription campaign than awards.
In other words, if the campaign were to close tonight we would have awards left so far as active workers are concerned.

Even though we have several names on our list as "entries" the above statement holds true. There

Huge Inflow Of Foreign Funds To US

The Treasury Department Heeds Threat of Sudden Withdrawal

Washington, Nov. 26.—(U.P.)—
The treasury department reported tonight that there was a net inflow of foreign capital into the United States of $2,281,659,000 between January 1, 1935, and September 30, 1936.

The treasury issued a 127-page booklet of statistical tables and charts tracing the movements of capital over this 21-month period.
It was the first such official report. In the future reports will be made quarterly.

The study was ordered by President Roosevelt, who revealed just before leaving for Buenos Aires that he had asked government fiscal agencies to study foreign investments here and possibly recommend legislation to control them.

Piled on top of the foreign investments in this country as of January 1, 1935, the inflow up to September 30 had brought the total to approximately $7,000,000, 000. Officials feared it might prove excessive and have an adverse effect on domestic security values if foreign holders attempted to "dump" their holdings suddenly.

The study showed, however, that only $633,253,000 of the total net inflow during the period represented investments in securities.
This represents only a trifling percentage of the $100,000,000,000 approximate estimate of the total value of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange—too small, apparently, to be of danger in the stock market.
